“WHEN HE WHO ADORES THEE.”

WHEN he who adores thee has left but the name
Of his fault and his sorrows behind,
Oh ! say, wilt thou weep, when they darken the fame
Of a life that for thee was resigned ?

Yes, weep, and however my foes may condemn,
Thy tears shall efface their decree ;
For Heav'n can witness, tho' guilty to them,
I have been but too faithful to thee.

With thee were the dreams of my earliest love ;
Ev'ry thought of my reason was thine ;
In my last humble prayer to the Spirit above
Thy name shall be mingled with mine.

Oh ! blest are the lovers and friends who shall live
The days of thy glory to see ;
But the next dearest blessing that Heaven can give
Is the pride of thus dying for thee.
